Dawn Tarin, President

Woman's Club of Temple City

Upcoming Meetings/Auxiliary Events

The following April meetings
have been cancelled:

April 09, 2020

April 23, 2020

See below for status of future meetings.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It's April 1st – and this is no “April Fool’s Day” joke, we are on lockdown. Well, that is perhaps a little dramatic, but for some of you that may be how you are feeling.

Over a series of days at the beginning of March our life changed, first there was the worry about what was happening in other countries, then it was concern how it would impact us. I had tickets to go see Hamilton on everything began changing in a major way – at about noon it was cancelled, sporting events were cancelled, then events with 50 or more were cancelled, then we were told not to assemble in groups of 10 or more. Bars were ordered closed, then restaurants, then all non-essential businesses. COVID-19 has altered our reality, and it is no April Fools that we are all “Safer at Home.”

March 12th, opening night – and it was the day

I worry about how this situation will change us, I worry about our healthcare workers and first responders, I worry for my family, and I worry for all of you. I know that we will all get through this crisis eventually and life will return to what is likely to be a new normal. We will need to wait and see what April brings to us, and perhaps even May. In the meantime, remember that the members of the Woman's Club are available to support you – please contact me if there is something that we can do. If it is within my ability, I will do my best to answer your question, assist you, or provide you with direction. Remember to get information from reliable resources. Our City's website provides a link to a variety of resources. The website is <https://www.ci.temple-city.ca.us/>. With many of us increasing our screen time there is greater opportunity for misinformation and scams. Please be careful, I understand that my name was recently associated with a scam.

We will all still be in our homes on Easter Sunday, and perhaps this is not a holiday that you customarily observe, but the symbolism is relevant to our present situation. Easter symbolizes the renewal of life. I wish you and your family the renewal of life, love, and happiness. May you find the renewal of hope, health, love and the spirit of God. Happy Easter to you and your families.

“Be Well” my friends, until we see each other again.

Woman's Club Wednesday

With all of us isolated we want to make sure our Club Members are doing ok, so we are going to check in with you all every week starting Wednesday, April 8th. We recognized that many of our members live alone, so every Wednesday morning EVERYONE will be sent an email from WomansClubOfTempleCity@gmail.com. It will request that you check in with a designated Officer (see attached list). If your Officer does not hear from you by Thursday, by email, phone call, text, etc. They are going to contact you. If they are unable to reach you, we will contact the person listed on your emergency contact form (if you returned it). If we still don't hear from you, we will be contacting the Los Angeles County Sheriff Department to do a wellness check. We want to make sure to look out for one another. Once again, this would begin on Wednesday, April 8th, so don't forget to check in EVERY WEDNESDAY until further notice!

On Thursday, March 26th the Elected Officers of the Woman's Club of Temple City and Parliamentarian voted and unanimously agreed to the following due to the COVID-19 "Safer at Home" restrictions ordered by the State of California and the County of Los Angeles:

Term of Office Extended

The Term of Office for the 2019-2020 Elected Officers and Chairman of the Woman's Club of Temple City is extended to July 1, 2020.

Membership Dues

Membership dues will be due June 1, 2020 instead of May 1, 2020. A renewal form is included with this Forecaster. Please note that renewals should be mailed directly to Noel Palmieri, not to the Post Office Box.

Are You Missing "Temple City"?

We are so fortunate to have among our members Jerry Jambazian. His website www.TempleCityPhotos.com will provide you with a temporary "Temple City" fix if you need one. Go online and browse through his photos this past year.

The Woman's Club was one of the few groups who were able to see the Temple City High School's Musical – Newsies this year. Thank you, Carole Rodenbucher, for orchestrating this event. In case you missed it, Jerry has a video of the entire Newsies Musical available through his website. Thank you, Jerry, for taking the time to provide an archive of our wonderful city.

Lunch / Dinner Reservation Reminder

This is a reminder that reservations for all Thursday meetings (dinner or luncheon) are to be made by Monday. If you make a reservation and are unable to attend, you will receive a bill for payment of lunch/dinner. We are fortunate to retain the services of a caterer for our meals, and the Club pays for meals based on the reservations, so if you RSVP we pay for your meal. We hope you understand the need for this policy.

"SAFER AT HOME" - MY EXPERIENCE SO FAR ...

Instead of my monthly "getting to know you" section, this month I reached out to a couple of our members to see how their experience with our COVID-19 restrictions were going, here are a couple:

Happy April Birthday Wishes To:

Dorothy Beauchamp 4/9
Renate Koepf 4/13
Kathryn Bradley 4/20
Kathy Perini 4/23
Connie Deckon 4/24
Diana Doi 4/28

“Last year enjoying the Flower Fields... this year the Corona Virus”

– Carole Rodenbucher

After 52 years of marriage, you will all be glad to know Bob and I are still speaking, whenever he comes out of his office! It has been very quiet and even the neighbors did not notice the Sheriffs from the Temple Station came to check on us. Our sons have been doing some shopping and even got dinner from Casa del Rey one Friday night.

Take care everyone and keep smiling.

“Blessing in Disguise”

– Winnie Joe

If you know me, you know that I'm generally running around all over the place like Dawn because we both wear a lot of hats. For those that don't know me, I am primarily a science teacher and mom, but these roles extend to club advisor, department chair, trip director, committee member, schedule organizer, peacemaker, chauffeur, troop helper, historian, and soccer/ballet/taekwondo mom. It may seem hectic to a lot of people, but really, I enjoy it. This being said, it doesn't leave a lot of time for me to stay home and get things done.

Enter COVID-19. All of a sudden, all our activities are put on hold and we are asked - required to stay home. All of a sudden, my schedule is clear. All of a sudden, all those things that I have been putting off have a possibility of getting done.

So, what am I doing with all this time on my hands? One would think this teacher would start home schooling right away, but no. At least, not academics. I decided to leave the schooling to the kiddos' actual schoolteachers and engage them in other activities, such as drawing, spending time outside, and baking. I may have them cook through the alphabet, since we are off to a pretty start: A is for Apple pie, B is for Banana Bread, C is for Cheesecake, D is for Dumplings...

I'm not going to lie – getting these kids off the screens is difficult! I really have to limit their technology time and they don't appreciate it. But for the first time in forever, their rooms are getting organized. My daughter is not so resistant when I ask her for help cleaning. My son willingly soaps the dishes, takes out the trash, and makes sure I drink enough water by pouring me a glass every meal. The toy room has been turned into the office and the husband has cleared the old office so we can have a guest bedroom.

As for my duties? I plan lessons for my students and make a short video for them every day. The laundry is still piling up, the grading is never-ending, and the house will probably never be as clean as I would like it. But all in all, "safer at home" has been a blessing in disguise as we all slowdown from our hectic lives and enjoy more time with our loved ones.

"A Homebody at Heart"

- Dawn Tarin

People are often surprised when I mention that I am an introvert. That is not to say that I don't like being around people, I think it is pretty obvious that I do, but I'm the type of introvert who needs to "spend time alone in order to recharge my inner being." It was only a few weeks post-Camellia Festival when everything began to close down. I worked to get my "after the event" to do items completed and made it just in time before the restrictions went into place. So, I am now able to "recharge" and focus my attention on items I can complete at home. I wish I could admit to being super productive, but "recharging" has involved a lot of reading, working on puzzles, and I admit to listening to the news too much. My husband is still working, my dogs are very happy to have a lap to sit on, and we are both enjoying home-cooked meals, with still Friday night out, except it is now "take out!"

As a "homebody at heart," this experience has not been personally difficult, but definitely odd. My birthday was on March 17th, and instead of going out my daughter picked up our order from The Diplomat in Monrovia. This was during the time when “gatherings of 10 people” was the order. It was wonderful to have my kids, their significant others, and Jose sitting around the dining room table for a family dinner – it was a first with just us! It certainly will be a birthday I won’t forget. I am a Mary Engelbreit fan, and one of my favorite prints is “Home is Where the Heart Is,” and I couldn’t agree more.

“Organizing, Learning and Waaaaay too Much Eating!”

- Noel Palmieri

Just like Dawn, I’m a natural born introvert, so being forced to stay home is a real treat for me. I’ve been using this time to whip my house into shape, and, so far, I’ve cleaned out 3 closets; cleaned and reorganized the entire garage; culled my filing cabinet and shredded about a million years’ worth of old tax returns; and replanted much of my garden. I also plan to scan and digitally organize a bunch of old family photos.

Still on the “to-do list” is continuing to learn Spanish (so far, so good – I mean Bueno!), watch some “how to” videos on YouTube (I keep getting distracted by old music videos) and exercise (total failure so far). Comfort eating seems to be my new hobby. Hoping its temporary!!!

I hope you are all staying healthy and safe.

5th Annual Community Christmas Party

Will be held on Sunday, December 6th and Christmas Party Chairman Rachel LaSota announced the theme for the 2020 event: “Christmas in the Tropics.” If you happen upon décor which will fit this theme, please contact Rachel. Likewise, if you would like to join the committee, please let her know.

Food Safety

Our Luncheon Chairman has requested that members who would like to assist in serving complete the Food Safety program. It is very informative and will keep us all health and safe with our knowledge of safe food handling practices. The website is <https://www.statefoodsafety.com/>

What’s My Line?

Many of us have outside interests/skills which brings in an income, such as baking, sewing, babysitting, selling a product, landscaping, driving people to their destinations, financial services, housecleaning or crafting, etc., I think you get the picture. We want to create a network in which we can help each other to provide a service where there is a need and to help bring in an income.

I will be collecting the names of people and the services they provide. Then I will submit the list to be printed in the Forecaster. Here are some services our members provide:

Kelly Barrios - Jewelry / Crafts / Fundraisers

Louise Huff - Sews Personalized Pillowcases & Tote Bags

Lisa Montesanti - Homemade Baked Goods – Price sheet available upon request

Donna Palmieri - Homemade Greeting Cards / Dance Lessons

This will be fun and helpful to many of us who are looking for just that right person to fit our specific need. It will definitely be a win-win situation. If you would like to be included, please contact Louise Huff at lrhuff44@yahoo.com or (626) 673-3507.

Signature Service Project

We are in the process of putting together a small working group to discuss our new Emergency Preparedness service project. This is a planning group which will gather information, discuss ideas, and make a report at an upcoming Board Meeting. If this is an area of interest to you, and something you would like to become involved with, please contact President Dawn Tarin.
