President's Message – Nanette Fish

Hello Members,

Lots of news to share this month. First, we are currently up to 107 members and growing. Thank you to everyone who has helped spread the word to gain new members. We are now a power house in Temple City and I look forward to meeting new members, raising money and supporting our community. And of course, having fun!

Second, what a great time we had at this year's 75th Annual Camellia Parade and Festival.

We were greeted by hundreds of spectators along Las Tunas Drive as we drove in our trolley.

Being named as this year's Grand Marshal was both an honor and privilege and we thank the Camellia Festival organization for its recognition. More photos of the parade and Woman's Club reception are available on-line at templecityphoto.com
Thanks, Jerry Jambazian for your continued support. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Member Louise Huff has volunteered to be our Lunch Coordinator/Hospitality Chairman. This is a big job so make sure you show your appreciation. Also attached to this month's Forecaster is a request for your review from The Boy Scouts of America for our club to charter a girl's troop. Please review and be ready to discuss and vote on this item at our next general meeting on March 28th. One more thing at our March 28th meeting we will be voting on officers for next year 2019-2020. Try to make it to this important meeting.

On a sad note we have lost one of our beloved members Mrs. Annett Lauppe. Here are the service details:

Family gravesite service March 8th.

Celebration of Life gathering at Annett's home 2pm.

6210 N. Sultana Ave. Temple City

That's it for this month.

Sincerely,
Nannette Fish, President

Women's Club of Temple City
9703 Woodruff Ave
Temple City, CA 91780

Dear Members of the Women's Club of Temple City,

Thank you for letting us come and speak to your executive board today. We hope to provide some general background information that may be shared with your members at your next general meeting.

The Boy Scouts of America has re-branded itself and is now called Scouts BSA. They have also changed their bylaws to allow girl's troops to form starting on February 1st. I am currently an Assistant Scoutmaster of a local boy's troop and we have been approached by a number of girls who are interested in starting a Girl's Troop. BSA requires that Girl Troops have a separate charter and scout master for their troop. I have agreed to serve as the scoutmaster for the perspective Girl's Troop and to help them find a charter organization which is interested in supporting them in this groundbreaking effort.

We are reaching out to you to ask if The Women's Club of Temple City would be interested in being the charter organization for a Girl's BSA Troop. We currently have ten girls who are interested in being founding members. As a chartering organization there are different levels of involvement and resource models we could follow. At minimum we need an organization that is willing to sign our charter and designate a representative to meet with us a couple times a year and share the vision of your organization with the young women in the Girl's Troop. If the Women's Club is open to additional support we are eager to partner with you to whatever level of involvement your organization is interested in having. Once chartered all insurance for activities and meetings are covered by BSA policies. Financially our troop will work to be self-sufficient and will hold our own fundraisers. We are eager to provide service and support for the Women's Club as part of our partnership.

These girls have a very clear vision of why they want to be pioneers of this program and I think your Executive Board would be very impressed by their poise and dedication. Please let us know if we can answer any additional questions you might have.

Yours in Scouting,
Emily Williams
